

To facilitate your stay, we have created this small guide to help you spend a few hours or some nights with your recreational vehicle.

The headlines of the "little guide":

Surroundings: where you will find the parking places around Lake Annecy and further away

Our advice: tips or ideas ... The very first tip is to arrive in the morning, the day before for a major event, or book your stay early in one of the many campsites : www.lac-annecy.com/campings-annecy-93.htm

Getting around: leave your motorhome in its location and take: the bike path : 40 km ride around the lake.

- West bank (Sevrier/Saint-Jorioz/Duingt/Doussard) : a lot of campsites, parkings with direct access to the bike path
- East bank (Veyrier-du-Lac/Menthon-Saint-Bernard/Talloires) : hillier, there's a section between Veyrier-du-Lac and Menthon where you can take a small road, shared with cars but it remains very pleasant.

Different distances (by bike) :

Annecy/Sevrier : 4 km – Annecy/Saint-Jorioz : 8 km – Annecy/Duingt : 12 km – Annecy/Bout du Lac : 20 km – Annecy/Veyrier-du-Lac : 6 km – Annecy/Menthon-Saint-Bernard : 9 km – Annecy/Talloires : 12 km

-Bus lines : <http://www.mobicime.hautesavoie.fr/en/> :

Line 51-52 Annecy/Albertville, by the western shore

Line 62 Annecy /Talloires, by the eastern shore (no buses on Sunday)

Line 162 Annecy/Thorens-Glières (few schedules)

- Sibra: <https://www.sibra.fr/en> : schedules and bus routes of the Annecy agglomeration

(plus its summer line connecting Le Semnoz)

-“Omnibus” Boat Tour: <http://www.annecy-croisieres.com/en.html> running end of April – end of September

-Lake shuttles: during the summer period, lake shuttles (Veyrier-du-Lac / Annecy) are available to the public (information in the Lake Annecy Tourist Offices)
